Subject: Feedback

Hi team

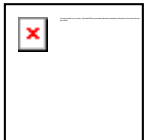

I have no issue with the law - I think from the feedback we've had from you that its working which is great
Our system is now reasonably easy to administer

BUT - it is really expensive to run and we have no way to recoup the costs which I think is really unfair
I have no issue with the legislation but I have a massive problem with the fact it was lumped onto business owners to fund complying with it - for a small business like ours it pretty took 25% of our profits away. (That doesn't leave much)

Warm regards
